

About the Conference:

Tuesday Aug. 3, 8:00-4:30 p.m.
Preparing for a Successful Year. This is just the beginning of a three day journey of valuable information that will help you manage a successful meal program.

Wednesday Aug. 4, 8:00-4:30 p.m.
The Food Buying Guide and how it can save you money. Engage in hands-on learning activities and complete worksheets to become more comfortable with the Food Buying Guide. This practice will benefit you and your food programs and keep you on top.

Thursday Aug. 5, 8:00-4:30 p. m.
Competitive Foods and Quality Meals. The most important part of any food program is feeding kids. Learn how to feed kids and meet USDA program requirements successfully.

Guest speakers will include:

Renee Legan, R.D. ~ Renee has been a registered dietitian since 1992 and has worked for the State of Alaska Child Nutrition Programs for the past 12 years conducting School Meals Initiatives Nutrient Analysis (SMI). She firmly believes that healthy eating habits are developed at a young age.

Kimberly Stryker ~ Kimberly Stryker manager of field and administrative staff for the State of Alaska's Food Safety and Sanitation Program. A lifelong resident of Alaska, Kim has been a public servant with the State of Alaska since 1995, joining the Food Safety & Sanitation program in 1999. She is a graduate of the first Environmental Public Health Leadership Institute and holds a paralegal certificate and Bachelor's degree in Justice from the University of Alaska, Anchorage.

Sandy Sadler, NFSMI Consultant~ Sandy Sadler has a wide range of experiences in food service. She served as Director of Programs at the Texas Education Agency where she developed regional purchasing cooperatives, researched school foodservice products, and trained staff on menu planning and procurement. Her areas of expertise include financial management, procurement, menu planning, and training.
